CONVOCAATION KEYNOTE SPEAKER

His enlightening social commentary is inescapable - and it's what we always need to hear. Touré is not only a force to be reckoned with in the world of music and pop-culture reporting but an omnipresent, indispensable voice on the top cultural issues of the day. An NBC contributor and MSNBC regular, he is a co-host of the cable channel's ensemble show "The Cycle."

As a journalist, Touré knows how to ask questions that extract the most revealing answers from our pop culture idols. He is a contributing editor to Rolling Stone, host of "The Hip-Hop Show" and "On the Record" for Fuse TV, and columnist for Time.com. Touré has interviewed nearly every major player in hip-hop, as well as such superstars as Lady Gaga, Adele, Jay-Z, 50 Cent, Snoop Dogg and Rihanna.

Touré is the author of "Who's Afraid of Post-Blackness?: What It Means to Be Black Now," named one of the Most Notable Books of 2011 by The New York Times and The Washington Post. In it, he takes a courageous look at what it means to be black in the age of Obama. A professor at NYU's Clive Davis School of Recorded Music, he has been called "a one-man media conglomerate" by Newsweek editor Tina Brown. In 2013, he released a book on the legendary artist Prince titled "I Would Die For U." He is currently working on two books, one on multi-platinum rapper Nas, as well as "What's a Real Man?," which investigates what it means to be a man in America today and is scheduled for a spring 2015 release.

With candid humor and cultural expertise, Touré engages audiences with his thought-provoking insights into everything from blackness, hip-hop and pop stardom to politics, the economy and the media.

HONORS RECOGNITION

North Carolina Central University recognizes students with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0.

PROFESSIONAL AND ACADEMIC HONOR SOCIETIES

North Carolina Central University has a variety of professional and academic honor societies and associations to which qualified students are invited to apply for membership. The purpose of the honor societies is to encourage and advance academic excellence and scholarship in a broad variety of professional and academic fields: education, arts and humanities, social and behavioral sciences, allied health sciences, law, library science, natural and physical sciences. The honor societies also promote high ideals and exceptional academic performance through such inter-curricular and co-curricular activities as workshops and regional and national conferences. These experiences focus on academic and professional development and the application of knowledge in addressing issues and solving critical problems of varied scope—local, state, national and global. Participation is based on academic requirements and minimum cumulative grade point averages ranging from 3.0 to 3.5 for undergraduate students and 3.5 to 3.8 for graduate students. Some societies require that students rank in the top 20 percent of their classes and others require that students rank in the upper half of their classes. The honor societies listed in this convocation program are those submitted by deans, chairs, and directors of each respective academic unit.

The Alma Mater

DEAR OLD N.C.C.

Annie D. Shepard

Harry T. Burleigh

The sloping hills, the verdant green,
The lovely blossoms' beauteous sheen
Surround our college proud and gay
Where wave our colors, Maroon and Gray
What matters it how far we roam,
Our thoughts will oft return to home
And hearts will e'er be true to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C.

REFRAIN:

Then Rah! Rah! Rah! for our colors so gay,
Dear Old N.C.C.'s Maroon and Gray;
Thy Sons and Daughters will honor thee,
Dear Old N.C.C.

II

We've gathered here to fit our lives
As from the darkness light revives
So let us hail, both night and day
Our glorious colors, Maroon and Gray.
We'll ever love and honor thee,
For thou hast taught us loyalty.
Then let our watchword "Service" be
To Alma Mater, N.C.C.

III

You send us forth with hearts of love
So like a blessing from above,
And from the path we'll never stray.
Our dear Alma Mater, Maroon and Gray
We'll work and fight, we'll win our way.
When duty calls, we shall obey.
And may we e'er return to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C.
