HONORS RECOGNITION

North Carolina Central University recognizes students with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0.

The University recognizes students in a number of categories, from the Chancellor's Award and University Award recipients — the university's top honors — to deans' lists and departmental academic honors. In addition, students are recognized for distinctions in scholarly groups, honor societies and scholarships. The groups, societies and scholarships listed in this convocation program are those submitted by deans, chairs and directors of each respective academic unit.

CONVOCATION KEYNOTE SPEAKER

CHERYL L. WOODS GISCOMBÉ PH.D., RN, PMHNP-BC, FAAN

Cheryl L. Woods Giscombé, Ph.D., is the assistant dean and the Melissa and Harry LeVine Family Distinguished Scholar of Quality of Life, Health Promotion and Wellness at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Nursing.

Dr. Giscombé also teaches as an adjunct associate professor in the Department of Social Medicine and as an affiliate of the Program on Integrative Medicine at UNC's School of Medicine. She also serves as a faculty scholar for the Harvard Macy Institute at Harvard Medical School.

Dr. Giscombé's research focuses on understanding and reducing stress-related health disparities among African-Americans. Her research incorporates sociohistorical and biopsychosocial perspectives in examining the impact of stress and coping strategies on psychological and physical health. She also studies integrative approaches, such as mindfulness-based stress reduction, and their ability to reduce mental-health-related disparities among African-Americans. Dr. Giscombé has published widely and presented broadly to national and international audiences.

Dr. Giscombé is dually trained in nursing and psychology. After graduating from the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics, she completed a bachelor's degree in psychology at North Carolina Central University and a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Stony Brook University in New York.

She also holds master's and Ph.D. degrees in social and health psychology from Stony Brook University, as well as a Master of Science in Nursing from the psychiatric-mental health nurse practitioner/clinical nurse specialist program at UNC-Chapel Hill.

Dr. Giscombé is certified in holistic health by the Institute of Integrative Nutrition in Manhattan, New York. She was named a "Leader in the Field" by the American Psychological Association and is a Fellow of the American Academy of Nursing.

She is the director of the Interprofessional Leadership Institute for Behavioral Health Equity, which she founded to help prepare the next generation of mental-health professionals to address mental-health disparities among ethnically diverse and underserved populations. Dr. Giscombé was co-developer of a mental health service provider for adults, couples, and families at a nurse-managed community health agency in North Carolina that worked with individuals recovering from substance abuse.

Her research has been supported by the National Institutes of Health, the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, the Josiah Macy Foundation, the Health Resources and Services Administration, and the UNC-Chapel Hill Faculty Engaged Scholars Program.

Dr. Giscombé was born in Chapel Hill and raised in North Carolina. She is particularly grateful for the support of her immediate family – husband, Kessonga, and daughters, Zuri and Zola – as well as extended family, friends, and mentors.

The Alma Mater

DEAR OLD N.C.C.

Annie D. Shepard
Harry T. Burleigh

The sloping hills, the verdant green,
The lovely blossoms' beauteous sheen
Surround our college proud and gay
Where wave our colors, Maroon and Gray
What matters it how far we roam,
Our thoughts will oft return to home
And hearts will e'er be true to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C.

REFRAIN:

Then Rah! Rah! Rah! for our colors so gay,
Dear Old N.C.C.'s Maroon and Gray;
Thy Sons and Daughters will honor thee,
Dear Old N.C.C.

II

We've gathered here to fit our lives
As from the darkness light revives
So let us hail, both night and day
Our glorious colors, Maroon and Gray.
We'll ever love and honor thee,
For thou hast taught us loyalty.
Then let our watchword "Service" be
To Alma Mater, N.C.C.

III

You send us forth with hearts of love
So like a blessing from above,
And from the path we'll never stray.
Our dear Alma Mater, Maroon and Gray
We'll work and fight, we'll win our way.
When duty calls, we shall obey.
And may we e'er return to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C.
