Dear Friends:

As Governor of North Carolina, it is my honor to welcome students, faculty, alumni and guests to North Carolina Central University's 2018 Homecoming Week. I know this is an exciting and much-anticipated event for everyone.

North Carolina Central University has a proud heritage as one of the nation's foremost Historically Black Colleges and Universities. Your alumni include well-known performers, athletes, educators, public servants, jurists and Civil Rights leaders, along with my Chief of Staff, Kristi Jones. This fine institution continues to offer a wide variety of educational opportunities for its students.

I hope you enjoy your time in Durham and that you will be able to take advantage of the many cultural, scenic and historic opportunities that are available in the Triangle area.

My best wishes for a safe and fun-filled homecoming celebration.

Go Eagles!

Very truly yours,
