

Your application was selected for review in a process called verification. In this process we compare and confirm the information that you and/or your parent(s) provided on the FAFSA to ensure its accuracy. The law says we have a right to ask you for this information before awarding Federal Aid. If there are differences between your FAFSA information and your financial documents, you or the school may need to make corrections electronically. We cannot continue processing your financial aid application until all requested information is received and completed. Please fax these requested documents to 919/530-7959 or mail to address at the end of this form.

Section B: High School Completion Verification

As per federal regulation, NCCU's Office of Scholarships & Student Aid must receive documentation of your high school diploma, recognized equivalent or home-school credential. The documentation must be submitted to the Office of Scholarships and Student Aid, even if previously provided to another NCCU office/department (such as undergraduate admissions)

Check the one blank applicable to the documentation you will be submitting with this complete worksheet:

- A copy of the student's high school diploma
- For students who completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of the "secondary school leaving certificate" or other similar document.
- A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded
- A copy of the student's General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- For a student who was homeschooled student in a State where state law requires the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschooling (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschooling (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and includes a statement that the student successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.
